2008 DR Global Film Festival Partner Incentives

DR Global Film Festival offers prestigious recognition and association with our prominent film program, as well as training opportunities and outreach possibilities, beyond the event, since it is part of a more comprehensive effort that includes the Global Media Arts Institute a premier education center in audiovisual matters with high quality training opportunities, conducted in collaboration with the most reputable institutions in the U.S., Latin America and Europe. This adds value to the partnership, as the identification and association spans in time and scope.

DR Global Film Festival presents an array of strategic and targeted media opportunities aimed at your specific audience in printed, electronic, downloadable and signage mediums.

DR Global Film Festival offers high-visibility marketing opportunities and brand recognition to 5 different cities in the DR, reaching out to populations rarely approached with a specific idea.

An audience of 100,000 plus can receive your message, more than 300 professionals can know your product, and over 60 international filmmakers can be acquainted with your organization.

By partnering with this exciting initiative, you can benefit from the advantages that a U.S. organization with 501(c)(3) status can bring to your tax deductible donation.
